

Self Reflection and Racial Bias Discussion Circles

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS

1. Was combating racism something that inspired you to work with the Office of the State Public Defender? If so, please describe your motivation and experience.
2. Can our agency's work change an individual's racist attitudes and behavior or does change only happen in one on one person to person interactions?
3. What, if anything, stops you from talking about your own personal racial biases in racially mixed company?
4. What does the phrase "white privilege" mean to you and how does it affect you personally?
5. What do you think people of color want individual white people to do about racial discrimination that people of color experience?
