EMPLOYMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Assistant Public Defender

The Office of the Public Defender has an opening for an Assistant Public Defender. The position requires representing a culturally diverse population accused of traffic offenses, probation violations, misdemeanors and felonies in Superior Court as well as writing and arguing appeals in the CNMI Supreme Court.

The applicant must possess a J.D. degree from an ABA accredited law school and be admitted to practice law in a state or territory in good standing such that he or she is eligible for a temporary admittance to the CNMI Bar Association and at least three years of criminal experience with good legal writing and research skills. This position will focus on bench trials with an extensive motions practice with some appellate practice and jury trials. We also have a drug court program to which one attorney is assigned and a newly formed mental health court

Our body of law is still growing and there are areas not yet settled. This can be an interesting and rewarding life style and practice for the right person with an interest in more writing than most trial public defender offices, but it's not for everyone.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Handle all aspects of criminal defense with an emphasis on bench trials in misdemeanor, motions practice and some jury trials in felony and possible writing and arguing appeals.
 - Represent clients at preliminary matters such as bail hearings, Gerstein hearings, Rule 5 hearings, preliminary hearings and arraignments.
 - Prepare and argue pretrial motions such as suppression and evidentiary motions as well as post-conviction motions.
 - Represent clients at status conferences, change of plea hearings, trials and sentencing hearings.
 - Conduct investigations and interview witnesses.
 - Give legal advice to clients.
 - Negotiate with opposing counsel.
 - Writing and arguing appeals in the CNMI Supreme court.

Salary: $45,000 to $65,000.

Benefits: The office will pay round trip relocation expenses. Group health and life insurance is offered as well as 14 annual paid holidays and paid leave at an accrued rate of one day per two week pay period (about five weeks a year).

The Office:

The office is located on Saipan in the Northern Marianas Islands (CNMI), 125 miles north of Guam. The population is about 55,000 for all the islands, Saipan is less than 50,000. The Public Defender (PD) serves all of the CNMI with cases pending on all three of the populated islands; Saipan, Rota and Tinian. We often need to use translators as many clients do not speak English.

We are a 5 lawyer office with a support staff of an office manager, a legal assistant and an investigator. The budget is limited. We do a lot of our own investigation. Challenging the constitutionality of police actions and local statutes is integral to our practice and an evolving part of the law. We have our own cases but often need to cover court hearings for each other. We are a small office and need to support each other and cover cases and assignments for each other.

Location:

Saipan, as well as all of the CNMI, is a beautiful tropical island. The largest of the three main islands, it is about 15 miles long and 5 miles wide with lots of outdoor activities such as golf, snorkeling, scuba diving and fishing. There are several local sporting events such as golf tournaments, triathlons, on and of road bike and foot races, and swimming events.

There is a diverse population with a large number of Chinese and Filipinos as well as the indigenous Carolinians and Chamorro. It's hot and wet in the summer and fairly dry and pleasant in the winter. There is one small underfunded public hospital and a few private clinics. There are travel opportunities to the other islands in the chain and its proximity to Asia and other Pacific Islands allows for travel opportunities for the more adventurous.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume and two writing samples to the above address or email Doug Hartig at hartig.pdo@gmail.com.
